

Privacy Policy

INTRODUCTION

At IGM Financial Planning Pty Ltd (The Licensee), we understand that the privacy of your information is important to you and we respect the confidentiality of the information that you provide to us. Protecting your information is an important part of maintaining trust between us and our clients and by handling information in a secure manner we build strong business relationships.

This document provides information and details about how we manage the personal information that we collect, hold, use and disclose about individuals.

The Privacy Policy applies to all organisations within the Licensee. We are bound by the Privacy Act and we manage and protect your personal information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles.

WHY WE COLLECT AND USE PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect, hold, use and disclose personal information so that we can provide you with financial and credit products, advice and service relevant to your needs. We may also collect, use and disclose your information for related purposes such as:

- Complying with our legal obligations, such as verifying your identity
- Assisting with your questions and complaints
- Arranging for services to be provided by third parties
- Internal operations, such as record keeping, data analytics, auditing or training
- Promotion of other products and services that may be of interest to you

We collect, use, hold and sometimes disclose personal information about financial advisers and other people who we do business with (including employees) in order to administer and manage our business operations. This information is afforded the same standard of care as that of our clients.

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We ask people for a range of personal information to assist us in providing relevant products and services. The information we collect could include (but is not limited to) your name, date of birth, contact details, financial information, employment details, residency and citizenship status. We may also collect the personal information of your family members where it is relevant to the advice being provided, and information about your medical history and their health and lifestyle to provide financial advice about life insurance products.

In most instances, we collect personal information directly from that person when they:

- complete a financial product or credit product application form,
- complete an identification form,
- complete data collection documentation,
- interact with an online interactive tool, such as a budget planner,
- provide documentation to us, or
- when you communicate with us in person, over the telephone, fax, email, internet or by using other electronic devices.

Situations where we collect personal information from other people and organisations include (but are not limited to):

- a financial adviser;
- a mortgage broker or other credit representative;
- other professionals who act on your behalf, such as a lawyer or accountant;
- health professionals;
- other organisations, who jointly with us, provide products or services to you;
- social media and publicly available sites.

It's your choice whether to provide your personal information. You have the right to not to provide personal information, including about your identity. However, in this case, your adviser will warn you about the possible consequences and how this may impact on the quality of the advice provided. Your adviser may also decline to provide advice if they feel they have insufficient information to proceed. In some instances, we will decline to provide services or advice if we feel we have insufficient information for the scope of the service or advice requested.

Further, in some circumstances the law requires us to obtain and verify details of photographic and non-photographic identification documents.

COOKIES AND OTHER WEB TECHNOLOGIES

The Licensee does not use cookies or web beacons on our company website: www.igmfp.com.au, nor on its proprietary client software: iPlan.

However personal information that you have authorised us to collect is collated and stored on our iPlan software, to enable us to provide you with timely services. iPlan deploys modern encryption technology to ensure the security of this personal information.

ACCESSING AND UPDATING PERSONAL INFORMATION

You can request access to personal information we hold. There may be a cost involved with locating, copying or sending you the information you request. The cost will be discussed and agreed with you at the time.

There may be circumstances where we refuse to provide you with the information you request, for example when the information is commercially sensitive. In these situations, we will inform you and provide an explanation as to why.

We will deal with requests for access to your personal information as soon as possible and aim to respond within 14 days. The time we require will depend on the type of information requested.

We will update your personal information if you contact us. In most cases, you can update your personal information over the phone, by contacting your adviser or broker or electronically.

If you wish to remain anonymous or to use a pseudonym when dealing with us, we may only be able to provide you with limited information or services. In many cases it will not be possible for us to assist you with your specific needs if you wish to remain anonymous or use a pseudonym.

WHO WE SHARE PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH

From time to time we may share your personal information with other entities both within and outside of the Licensee. This will vary according to the product or service involved, but could include:

- any person acting on your behalf, including your financial adviser, solicitor, accountant, executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or attorney;
- financial product and service providers;
- lenders and other credit providers;
- other organisations within the Licensee including related bodies corporate and advice firms we have authorised;
- medical practitioners and health service providers, such as pathology services;
- companies involved in the payments system including financial institutions, merchants and payment organisations;
- organisations who assist us with certain business functions, such as accountants and information technology support;
- our solicitors, our insurers, courts, tribunals and dispute resolution organisations;
- other organisations who provide us with products and services so that they may provide their products and services to you or contact you on our behalf;
- anyone to whom we, or our service providers, are required or authorised by law to disclose your personal information to (for example, law enforcement agencies, Australian and international government and regulatory authorities).

We may also disclose your information to a third party where you have given your consent or where you would reasonably expect us to disclose your information to that third party.

We may also disclose the personal information we hold about our financial advisers to professional organisations, companies and consultants that we work with.

The only circumstances in which we would collect, use or disclose your government related identifiers is where we are required or authorised by law to do so. For example, we may be required to disclose your Tax File Number (TFN) to the Australian Taxation Office, a superannuation or retirement income product provider. Likewise, we may need to disclose your Medicare number to Centrelink in order to assess your social security eligibility. Drivers licence numbers and passport numbers may also be collected when we are required to verify your identity.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION OVERSEAS

Your personal information will not be shared with any parties operating outside Australia, without your prior written consent.

Personal information is hosted on servers located in Australia. If you access our services from outside Australia, you consent to the transfer of your personal information to Australia, a jurisdiction that may not provide the same high level of protection we apply in Australia.

HOW WE PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

We strive to ensure that the personal information that you provide to us is stored safely and securely. We take a number of precautions to protect the personal information we hold about you from misuse, interference and loss, and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

We have a range of practices and policies in place to protect personal information we hold, including:

- educating our staff and representatives about how to protect your personal information and updating them about cybersecurity developments, threats and scams;
- requiring our staff and representatives to use passwords when accessing our systems;
- where appropriate, using strict confidentiality arrangements restricting third parties' use or disclose of personal information for any unauthorised purposes;
- employing physical and electronic means, including access controls (as required) to protect against unauthorised access to buildings;
- employing firewalls, intrusion prevention systems and virus scanning tools to protect against unauthorised persons, malware and viruses from entering our systems;
- some of the systems we use are on dedicated secure networks or transmit electronic data via encryption;
- providing secure storage for physical records and securing paper files in locked cabinets and physical access restrictions.

Where personal information is no longer required, we take steps to de-identify or destroy the information in a secure manner.

MAKING A PRIVACY COMPLAINT

If you would like further information about how we handle your personal information, please contact us.

If you wish to make a complaint in relation to privacy, including a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, please contact our Privacy Officer:
